

CLAIM NEUTRAL ZONE PRECIPITATES CRISIS

French and English Writers See the Establishment of Belt on the Romanian Frontier as Cause

GERMAN INFLUENCE FELT

Some seen Hand of Enemy Working Hand in Hand With the Rising Reds Against Allies

LONDON, March 24.—Hungary's adoption of a neutral zone as a buffer between the French and English fronts, chiefly as endangering the efforts of the allies to build up the Romanian frontier, has precipitated the crisis. This zone was intended to make the Hungarian danger from the backing of the Romanians and to close the gap between Hungary and Poland. The neutral zone defining this zone was dated March 19, according to the Vienna dispatch. The zone was fixed as a belt 140 miles long and 140 miles wide, virtually shutting Hungary behind the allies. These zones, Hungary and Poland, including the towns of Győr, Debreczen and the entire country behind them. The zone required the withdrawal of the Hungarian troops behind the western boundary of the belt within 10 days and authorized the Romanians to advance to the eastern boundary. The civil control zone was to be exercised by Hungary under allied control but the important points would be occupied by allied troops.

Statements issued at Budapest accuse the enemies of forcing a solution but the crisis is held here to be more probably due to the occupation of parts of Hungary by Czechoslovak and Rumanians while the commentators declare the signs are not wanting that Germany is in collusion with the bolsheviks.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, chairman of the foreign relations committee of the last senate, announced today that he had accepted an invitation to debate the proposed constitution for a league of nations with Senator Lenroot, of Wisconsin, before the Economic club of New York.

Senator Hitchcock said he also had agreed to participate in a joint debate on the same subject in Philadelphia with George Wharton Pepper, a constitutional lawyer of that city and manager of the league for the preservation of American independence, recently organized by opponents of the proposed covenant. The debate will be held April 5, Governor Sprout, of Pennsylvania, will preside at the meeting.

REPORTS ARE UNFOUNDED OF HOHENZOLLERN MENACE

By The Associated Press. AMERLONGEN, Saturday, March 22.—Nothing developed today to show that there was any substance in the reports that a member of the house was backing over former Emperor William in his retreat in the von Bentling castle here. At 7 o'clock this evening, the latest hour when a telegraphic message could be dispatched, nothing had occurred to call for the service of the strong arm which has been established at the castle. The guards remained, however, in position throughout the night, although the castle had been somewhat relaxed after the emperor had stepped from across the castle from his morning's trip at long last.
